

LET'S COLOR A RHINO!

AT RISK OF EXTINCTION

Rhinoceros are among the world's most endangered animals and all are at risk of extinction within our lifetimes due to poaching, habitat loss and disease. You can help by learning more.

FASCINATING FACTS

- ☆ Rhinos can grow up to 6 feet high and can weigh up to 7,000 pounds.
- ☆ Rhinos have poor eyesight but have an excellent sense of smell.
- ☆ Rhinos have very thick, yet sensitive skin so they enjoy taking mud baths.
- ☆ They are related to horses, zebras and tapirs.
- ☆ Their ancestors roamed the earth 50 million years ago and were larger & hairier.

WHERE RHINOS LIVE

- ☆ 5 species of rhino reside in Africa and Asia.
- ☆ They inhabit savannas, jungles and wetlands.

Learn more at www.ChristineElder.com/rhino